- Following the death of an account owner, Janus Services LLC does not have a duty to locate beneficiaries, determine marital status or take a position if the beneficiary designation is disputed. In such instances, Janus Henderson may delay the disbursement of assets until such a time that the parties resolve the dispute and sufficient documentation of beneficiary status has been provided. We recommend that you periodically review your beneficiary designations and promptly notify Janus Henderson of any necessary changes.
- This will become part of the terms, conditions and representations of the shareholder’s application.
