

JANUS HENDERSON INVESTORS

1930s

1934
Founded in the UK to administer the estate of Alexander Henderson, the first Lord Faringdon

1960s

1969
Founded as a fundamental, bottom-up growth equity investment manager

1980s

1983
Became a public company

1986
Opened investment office in Japan

1987
Began managing fixed income assets

1990s

1992
Acquired Touche Remnant, establishing Henderson as the UK's leading investment trust manager

1995
Opened office in Singapore

1998
Acquired by AMP (Australia)

1999
Set up hedge fund business

1998
Established London office

2000s

2000
Opened offices in Hong Kong

2001
Started US mutual fund business

2003
Demerged from AMP

2005
Re-named as Henderson Group plc

2009
Acquired New Star Asset Management Group in UK

2007
Opened Singapore office

2003
Janus Capital Group begins trading on the New York Stock Exchange

Acquired INTECH Investment Management and Perkins Investment Management as investment subsidiaries

2000
Opened Hong Kong office

2010s

2011
Acquired Gartmore Group in UK

2013
Acquired stake in natural resources specialist, 90 West Asset Management

Opened office in Australia

2014
Acquired US small/mid cap specialist, Geneva Capital Management

2015
Acquired Perennial Fixed Interest and Perennial Growth Equities in Australia

Acquired remaining stake in 90 West Asset Management

2016
Announced merger of equals with Janus Capital Group

2017

2016
Announced merger of equals with Henderson Global Investors

2015
Acquired Australia-based, global macro fixed income specialist Kapstream Capital

2014
Established global macro fixed income platform with launch of strategy managed by Bill Gross

Nobel Prize Laureate Myron Scholes joined the firm as Chief Investment Strategist, supporting the build out of the global asset allocation platform

Acquired VS Holdings Inc., parent company of ETF specialist, VelocityShares LLC

2012
Announced Strategic Alliance with Dai-ichi Life Holdings, Inc.

Opened Taiwan office

Launched alternatives business

○ Henderson Global Investors ● Janus Capital Group