Index Committee Announcement

Small Cap/Smid Cap Growth Alpha Indices Methodology Update

May 11th, 2021

The Janus Henderson Index Committee announces that it has approved minor updates to the Index Methodology for the Janus Henderson Small Cap Growth Alpha Index and the Janus Henderson Smid Cap Growth Alpha Index. The change to the Index Methodology allows for an enhanced method for handling missing data. An updated Index Methodology for the suite has been posted to the www.janushenderson.com/indices website, and implementation of the change will take place for the next upcoming Calculation Date for the indices, which is May 31st, 2021.
